Notes on Personal Information Collection

In view of the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance which came into force on 20 December 1996, these Notes are prepared to assist you in understanding your rights and obligations in relation to the supply of personal data by you to the Examination Centre, which holds the examination(s) that you intend to sit for and the manner in which the Examination Centre may use or deal with such data in connection with the Leveraged Foreign Exchange Trading Examination and other relevant matters. You are strongly advised to read these Notes carefully before you sign the Consent at the foot hereof.

- The Examination Centre may transfer or provide the personal data and any examination-related information (e.g. examination result and information on the candidate's conduct and behaviour while taking the examination) of those candidates who have enrolled for the Leveraged Foreign Exchange Trading Examination to the Securities and Futures Commission ("SFC"). The personal data and examination-related information so transferred or provided may be used by the SFC for monitoring, verifying and matching (including "matching procedure" as defined in s.2 of the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance, Cap 486) purposes as well as any other related purposes of assisting them to perform and discharge their functions.
- You are entitled under the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance to request access to or to request the correction of any data supplied by you, in the manner and subject to the limitations prescribed therein. All enquiries should be directed to the Examination Centre (see contact details at the bottom of this page).

Note: Please read the "Notice relating to the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance" at Appendix X of the Examination Handbook for details or contact the Examination Centre for enquiries.

Applicant's Declaration

- I accept that the Examination Centre will not be responsible for any nonperformance of duties where such nonperformance was due to bad weather, an act of God, labour strike, natural disaster, governmental action or intervention, riot, or any other cause or circumstances not reasonably foreseeable and beyond the reasonable control of the Examination Centre.
- I, the undersigned, hereby confirm and acknowledge that I have read and understood the Notes on Personal Information Collection above before furnishing my personal data to the Examination Centre. I voluntarily consent to the use of such data (including the Hong Kong Identity Card and Passport number), all personal data that I previously supplied (if any) and any examination-related information by the SFC for monitoring, verifying and matching (including "matching procedure" as defined in s.2 of the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance, Cap 486) purposes as well as any other related purposes of assisting them to perform and discharge their functions.
- I have read and agree to the terms and conditions above and in the Examination Handbook.
- I declare that all the information given in this form is true and correct.
- I understand that if I knowingly supply false information or withhold any material information, the Examination Centre shall have the right to deny this enrolment.
