

Regulations of the LOMA I*STAR Examination

General Rules

1. Candidates shall only be allowed to attend an examination at the designated venue.
2. Candidates are advised to arrive at the examination venue at least 15 minutes before the start of the examination. Before being admitted to the examination venue, candidates must present their original, valid Hong Kong Identity Card or Passport and Enrollment Confirmation Email to the Proctors for verification purpose. Candidates will be assigned a seat after their identity is verified. Those who fail to produce any of the mentioned identification documents or whose identity cannot be satisfactorily verified will not be permitted to sit for the examination.
3. Candidates must sit according to the designated seat numbers unless otherwise approved by the Proctor.
4. As far as possible, the examination will be started according to the published schedule. However, the Institute of Professional Education And Knowledge Examination Centre of Vocational Training Council (“Examination Centre”) will not be responsible for any delay arisen due to operational reasons, including system failure. Candidates will be given the full examination time to take their examination if there are any technical problems with starting the examination.
5. Candidates who arrive at the examination venue more than 15 minutes after the start of the examination for whatever reason will not be allowed to take the examination and the examination fee paid will not be refunded.
6. LOMA calculators can only be allowed to use during examination. Please refer to the “Specifications for Calculators Approved For Use on Proctored LOMA Exams” at www.loma.org/siteassets/pdfs/reference/calculatorspecs.pdf.
7. Candidates are NOT allowed to use any communication/electronic devices during the examination. Communication/electronic devices include but not limited to mobile phones, tablets, Personal Digital Assistants (PDAs), Bluetooth headphones/headsets and smart watches etc.
8. Candidates are required to switch off all communication/electronic devices, including the alarm function, as well as devices which produce sound of any kind, such as alarm watches, BEFORE entering the examination venue. Proctors will check the devices at the entrance of the examination venue.
9. Candidates who are not able to attend the examination for whatever reason are regarded as “ABSENT” (including those who are more than 15 minutes late). Absentees will not be re-scheduled to take another examination session and the fees paid are not refundable. For the candidates who arrive at the examination venue within 15 minutes after the start of the examination, their examination time will not be extended.
10. The Examination Centre will not be responsible for any loss, theft or damage of personal property of candidates during the examination.
11. All personal articles including any textbooks, notes, dictionaries, electronic diaries and any other communication/electronic devices, study materials must be placed in the designated area during the examination.

12. Drinking, eating and smoking are not allowed in the examination venue.
13. Candidates can ask for scratch/blank paper to do rough work during the examination. However, all such papers should be returned to the Proctor and destroyed following the examination. Candidates are not allowed to take away any written information regarding the examination content from the examination venue.
14. Candidates are not allowed to leave the examination venue without permission. If a candidate must leave the examination for an emergency, the examination will be graded at the point the candidate leaves. The candidate will not be allowed to return to the examination venue upon departure. The candidate should re-enroll for the examination with full examination and administration fees.
15. Candidates should raise their hands to seek the Proctor's assistance if they encounter any problems during the examination.
16. At the end of the examination, candidates should remain silent and seated until the Proctor announces that they can leave the examination venue.
17. Proctors will report any suspected cheating or examination violations to LOMA's Office of the Registrar immediately.
