

Handbook for Insurance Intermediaries Qualifying Examination (Pencil-and-Paper and Computer Screen Mode)

- Effective from 2 October 2024 -

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Every individual licensee¹ must have passed the Insurance Intermediaries Qualifying Examination (“the Examination”), unless otherwise exempted.
- 1.2 Vocational Training Council (“VTC”) has been appointed by the Insurance Authority (“IA”) as the examination body. This is administered under an independent unit within the VTC, the Institute of Professional Education And Knowledge Examination Centre of the VTC (“PEAK Exam Centre”).
- 1.3 This Handbook aims to inform candidates the requirements and enrolment procedures for Pencil-and-Paper Mode Examination (“PPME”) and Computer Screen Mode Examination (“CSME”) for all papers except Paper VI (please refer to 2.1.1). To assist candidates in preparing for the examination, its format, structure and assessment are also described in details. For the examination in Remote Invigilation Mode Examination (“RIME”) for Paper I, II and III, please refer to the relevant Handbook of the Examination for details.

2. Examination

2.1 Structure and Syllabus of the Examination

2.1.1 The Examination consists of the following papers:-

Paper I	:	Principles and Practice of Insurance
Paper II	:	General Insurance
Paper III	:	Long Term Insurance
Paper V	:	Investment-linked Long Term Insurance
Paper VI	:	Travel Insurance Agents Examination (for details, please refer to the Examination Handbook separately published for this paper)

2.1.2 Paper I is a compulsory paper. Papers II, III and V are three optional papers on general insurance, long term insurance and investment-linked long term insurance respectively.

2.1.3 The following table summarizes the papers to be passed for candidates aspiring to engage into the various types of insurance intermediary businesses:

¹ “Individual licensee” means: (i) a licensed individual insurance agent; (ii) a licensed technical representative (agent); or (iii) a licensed technical representative (broker) as defined in the Insurance Ordinance (Cap. 41).

Type of business \ Papers	Paper I	Paper II	Paper III	Paper V
General Insurance	✓	✓
Long Term Insurance (excluding linked long term)	✓		✓
Long Term Insurance (including linked long term)	✓		✓	✓
Composite Insurance (excluding linked long term)	✓	✓	✓
Composite Insurance (including linked long term)	✓	✓	✓	✓

2.1.4 Syllabuses of Papers I, II, III and V can be downloaded from the websites of the PEAK Exam Centre and the IA which at www.vtc.edu.hk/cpdc and www.ia.org.hk respectively.

2.1.5 With effect from 2 May 2013, the former Paper IV: the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Examination (MPF Schemes Examination) ceased to be part of the Examination. For details about the MPF intermediaries examination specified by the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Authority, please refer to the Examination Handbook separately published for this paper.

2.2 Format of the Examination

2.2.1 Paper I and V each lasts for 2 hours and consists of 75 and 80 multiple-choice questions respectively. Paper II and III each lasts for 1 hour 15 minutes and consists of 50 multiple-choice questions.

2.2.2 Each examination paper is presented in both English and Chinese.

2.2.3 All examination questions are compulsory.

2.2.4 Candidates may attempt the PPME or CSME. Candidates choosing CSME are advised to familiarize with the examination format and operations. A “System Demonstration – Online Tutorial” is available on the website of the PEAK Exam Centre at www.vtc.edu.hk/cpdc. The PEAK Exam Centre will not be responsible for any disputes and consequences resulting from the commands incorrectly inputted by the candidates. Candidates should follow the instructions from the invigilators and input the required information for logging in the examination system by themselves. Invigilators will not input the information for candidates.

2.3 Grading and Results

2.3.1 Examination results are graded as follows:-

- (i) PASS
- (ii) FAIL

The exact score, the examination questions and the corresponding correct answers will not be disclosed in any case.

2.3.2 Candidates who are not able to attend the examination for whatever reason are regarded as “ABSENT” (including those candidates who are late for 15 minutes or more after the start of the examination). Absentees will not be re-scheduled to another examination session and the fees paid are not refundable or transferable.

2.4 Assessment

To pass the examination of each paper, candidates are required to attain a minimum score of 70%.

3. Application

3.1 Timetable

- 3.1.1 Examinations for all the Papers (both PPME and CSME) are being held regularly.
- 3.1.2 The frequency of examination is flexible and subject to demand.
- 3.1.3 Available PPME and CSME examination sessions are updated every day in the morning (except Saturdays, Sundays and public holiday) in the Online Enrolment System (www.vtc.edu.hk/cpdc/eonline).

3.2 Entries

- 3.2.1 The examination is open to public and there are no prerequisites for enrolment.
- 3.2.2 All enrolments can only be made online via the Online Enrolment System (www.vtc.edu.hk/cpdc/eonline).
- 3.2.3 Applicants may enrol for more than one paper of the examination, but not more than one session of the same papers for PPME within the same calendar week and not enrol for same session of the same papers for CSME more than once.
- 3.2.4 All examination seats are allocated on a first-come-first-served basis. Incomplete online enrolment applications and applications without payment will not be processed.
- 3.2.5 Nevertheless, subject to the agreement of applicants, they will be arranged to sit for an examination session which differs from their original chosen examination session if the chosen session is not available. The PEAK Exam Centre reserves the right to allocate applicants to designated examination sessions.
- 3.2.6 Once the enrolment is submitted, any requests for re-scheduling and/or cancellation will not be entertained. Fees paid are not refundable or transferrable.

4. Enrolment Procedures

- 4.1 Applicants should select the examination session(s) and provide personal particulars in the Online Enrolment System. The personal particulars provided should be accurate and the same as printed on the Hong Kong Identity Card or Passport. In case there is any discrepancy in the particulars, candidate will not be allowed to take the examination and the examination fees paid are not refundable or transferable; or the progress of the examination will be delayed. No extra time will be given for this situation.

- 4.2 Applicants may pay the examination fee by Visa, Master or UnionPay Card in the Online Enrolment System.
- 4.3 Online enrolment process should be completed within 20 minutes. Otherwise, the selected examination session(s) will be released and the enrolment process will start all over again.
- 4.4 If the enrolment is accepted, applicants will normally receive an Admission Form by email after two full working days of the enrolment, excluding the date of enrolment. If the enrolment is not accepted, applicant will receive a notification from the PEAK Exam Centre by phone or email not later than five full working days of the enrolment, excluding the date of enrolment, and the fees paid will be refunded.
- 4.5 For the operations of the Online Enrolment System, please refer to the Online Enrolment Instructions at www.vtc.edu.hk/cpdc/econline.

5. Payment of Examination Fee

- 5.1 Examination Fee:

Papers / Mode	Paper I	Paper II	Paper III	Paper V
PPME	HK$195	HK$195	HK$195	HK$325
CSME	HK$265	HK$265	HK$265	HK$390

- 5.2 Payment can only be made in the Online Enrolment System by Visa, Master or UnionPay Card. Receipt will be issued to the applicant by email after the completion of payment.
- 5.3 Entry to the examination will be invalidated if a candidate fails to comply with the above-mentioned payment procedure.
- 5.4 Fees paid are not refundable or transferable except where the candidates cannot be arranged to sit for one of their chosen examination sessions.
- 5.5 Fees may be subject to revision as required.

6. Admission Form

- 6.1 The Admission Form contains information including the Examination Number, Candidate Number, Examination Date, Time, Venue and Candidate's Name.
- 6.2 Candidates should notify the PEAK Exam Centre by email to cpdc@vtc.edu.hk at least one working day before the examination if amendments in the personal particulars are required. The PEAK Exam Centre reserves the right to accept amendments to personal information submitted by candidates.
- 6.3 On some occasions, the Admission Form may be distributed at the PEAK Exam Centre by the invigilator on the day of the examination concerned.
- 6.4 The PEAK Exam Centre will collect all Admission Forms during the examinations. Candidates will only be allowed to keep the Admission Forms upon the approval of invigilator.

7. Computer or System Breakdown

For CSME, candidates' results will be invalid if there is a technical breakdown caused by whatever reason during the examination. The PEAK Exam Centre will try to fix the problems but delay may inevitably arise. If the technical problems cannot be fixed within reasonable time, the PEAK Exam Centre will arrange the candidates concerned to take a rescheduled examination as soon as possible. Candidates cannot object to the arrangements and any requests for cancellation and/or refunds will not be entertained. The PEAK Exam Centre will not be liable for the candidates' losses resulting from the system breakdowns.

8. Examination Regulations

Candidates should read carefully the Regulations of the Examination at Appendix I. Candidates who fail to observe any of these regulations may be disqualified from taking the examination for up to three years.

9. Disqualification

9.1 If a candidate is found breaching the Regulations of the Examination in the examination, he/she may be disqualified from taking all the papers of the Examination for up to three years. The PEAK Exam Centre would report to the IA any disqualification cases in respect of the Examination.

9.2 Any candidates who deliberately attempt to, or intend to, disrupt the system operations, destroy/alter the computer facilities and/or tamper with the computers will be disqualified immediately and are required to indemnify the PEAK Exam Centre for the losses. The PEAK Exam Centre would also report the incident to the IA.

9.3 The PEAK Exam Centre would report to the Hong Kong Police Force, and/or any law enforcement bodies if candidates commit any illegal acts during the examination.

10. Identification Requirements

Candidates are required to bring with them their valid and original Hong Kong Identity Cards² or Passports and Admission Forms to the examination venue for identification checking throughout the examination. The identification document must be the original of the one submitted for the enrolment. Those who fail to produce such identification, whose identification documents are invalid, or whose identity cannot be satisfactorily verified will not be permitted to sit for the examination. Fees paid are not refundable or transferable.

11. Distribution of Results

11.1 PPME:

Candidates can check their individual results, download and print the Notifications of Result in the "Exam Result Checking" system on the website of the PEAK Exam Centre (www.vtc.edu.hk/cpdc) starting from the 5th full working day after the examination.

² For candidates who have just reached 18 years old, they are required to produce their adult identity card (or an acknowledgement of an application for an adult identity card) for identity verification during any examination which takes place after the 30th days following their 18th birthday. Otherwise, they will not be allowed to take the examination. Fees paid are not refundable or transferable.

11.2 CSME:

- 11.2.1 Examination results will be shown on the computer screen immediately after completion of the examination. Candidates must inform the invigilators before they submit the answers. The invigilators will guide the candidates to submit the answers and record the results for candidates' confirmation and signature. The on-screen examination result is for reference only and is subject to the result printed on the Notification of Result.
- 11.2.2 Candidates can download and print the Notifications of Result in the "Exam Result Checking" system on the website of the PEAK Exam Centre (www.vtc.edu.hk/cpdc) starting from one hour after the designated end time of examination.
- 11.3 Hard copy of the Notification of Result will not be provided. The examination results and Notifications of Result will be available in the "Exam Result Checking" system for three months after the date of examination. After three months of the examination, candidates are required to apply for reissuance of the Notifications of Result (please refer to 14.1).
- 11.4 Candidates who do not agree to having their results and Notifications of Result available in the "Exam Result Checking" system must inform the PEAK Exam Centre in writing by email to cpdc@vtc.edu.hk at least three full working days before the date of examination. Candidates should provide their name, Hong Kong Identity Card or Passport number, date of examination, name of examination paper, contact telephone number and local postal address in the email. Late notifications will not be entertained. Their Notifications of Result will then be sent to the candidates' local postal addresses by an ordinary letter within seven full working days after the date of examination. If the Notification of Result was lost in the post, candidates are required to apply for reissuance.
- 11.5 By virtue of confidentiality, the examination results will not be disclosed by phone, facsimile or email.
- 11.6 List of candidates who passed the Examination (including Hong Kong Identity Card or Passport number) would be disclosed or transferred to the IA.

12. Re-marking of the Examination Papers

- 12.1 Candidates who are not satisfied with their examination results may, within two weeks after the issuance date of the Notification of Result, request in writing to the PEAK Exam Centre for re-marking of the examination papers.
- 12.2 Candidates submitting such request would have to enclose a crossed cheque or cashier's order for HK$400 payable to "Vocational Training Council" as a fee for re-marking of each examination paper.
- 12.3 All re-marking fees are non-transferable and non-refundable. However, if the original examination result is found incorrect after the re-marking, the re-marking fee will be refunded to the candidate concerned.
- 12.4 All re-marking of examination papers will be kept confidential.

- 12.5 The result will be sent to the candidates concerned in writing within one month after receipt of the re-marking request.
- 12.6 Candidates will only be notified of the final grading (i.e. PASS or FAIL). The result of the re-marking is final. The PEAK Exam Centre will not disclose the exact scores, the examination questions and the corresponding correct answers in any case.

13. Certificates

- 13.1 Candidates who pass the Examination will be awarded certificates, which can be collected by candidates in person from the PEAK Exam Centre during office hours two weeks after the examination, excluding the examination date.
- 13.2 Certificates can also be collected by a representative provided with a duly signed authorization letter, a copy of the Notification of Result and a copy of the Hong Kong Identity Card or Passport of the candidate concerned.
- 13.3 Alternatively, certificates can be sent to candidates by registered mail upon candidates' written request (with a copy of Hong Kong Identity Card or Passport enclosed) and submission of a crossed cheque or cashier's order for HK$25 payable to "Vocational Training Council" being payment for the postal expenses.
- 13.4 The valid period for collection of the certificates is two years from the date of the examination. If the certificate(s) has/have not been collected after two years of the examination date, candidates are required to request for reissuance of certificate(s) (please refer to 14.2).

14. Reissuance of Documents

Regulations of the Insurance Intermediaries Qualifying Examination
(Pencil-and-Paper and Computer Screen Mode)

General Rules

1. Candidates shall only be allowed to attend an examination at the designated venue.
2. Candidates are advised to arrive at the examination venue at least 15 minutes before the start of the examination. Before being admitted to the examination venue, candidates must present their original, valid Hong Kong Identity Card or Passport and Admission Form to the invigilators for verification purpose. Candidates will be assigned a seat after their identity is verified. Those who fail to produce any of the mentioned identification documents or whose identity cannot be satisfactorily verified will not be permitted to sit for the examination.
3. Candidates must sit according to the designated seat numbers unless otherwise approved by the invigilator.
4. As far as possible, the examination will be started according to the published schedule. However, the PEAK Exam Centre will not be responsible for any delay arisen due to operational reasons, including system failure.
5. Candidates who arrive at the examination venue more than 15 minutes after the start of the examination for whatever reason will not be allowed to take the examination and the examination fee paid will not be refunded.
6. Calculators brought into the examination venue are subject to inspection. Non-programmable electronic calculators (without cover) may be used in examination, provided that the calculators are battery-powered, silent in operation and with neither print-out nor graphic/word display functions. Please refer to the List of Approved Calculators at “FAQs” on the website of PEAK Exam Centre. Calculators on the List of Approved Calculators can only be allowed to use during examination.
7. Candidates are NOT allowed to use any communication/electronic devices (except authorised calculators stipulated in Rule number 6 above) during the examination. Electronic devices refer to mobile phones, tablets, Personal Digital Assistants (PDAs), Bluetooth headphones/headsets, pagers, MP3 players, camera devices/equipment, electronic dictionaries, scanner pens, databank watches, smart watches with mobile applications installed or wireless technologies supported or other electronic devices which can store and/or display texts, take photos/videos, and record sounds.
8. Candidates are required to switch off all communication/electronic devices (include but not limited to the devices listed in Rule number 7 above) including the alarm function, as well as devices which produce sound of any kind, such as alarm watches, BEFORE entering the examination venue. Invigilators will check the devices at the entrance of the examination venue.
9. No stationery will be provided at the examination venue. Candidates should bring their own stationery for the examination, including authorized calculators (if needed).
10. Candidates should bring their own pencils and erasers to the examination venue for Pencil-and-Paper Mode Examination (“PPME”). They should use HB pencils to answer multiple choice questions. The use of correction fluid or tape on the Multiple Choice Answer Sheets is not permitted.

11. Candidates who are not able to attend the Examination for whatever reason are regarded as “ABSENT” (including those who are more than 15 minutes late). Absentees will not be re-scheduled to take another examination session and the fees paid are not refundable. For the candidates who arrive at the examination venue within 15 minutes after the start of the examination, their examination time will not be extended.
12. Candidates attending Computer Screen Mode Examination (“CSME”) are forbidden from switching on the monitor or any computer facilities until they are instructed to do so by the Chief Invigilator. Before the start of the examination, candidates must listen to the Chief Invigilator’s announcement. With the Chief Invigilator’s instruction, the candidates log in the examination system. The Chief Invigilator will announce the start of the examination after the login is completed (normally within one minute).
13. After the examination has been in progress for more than 30 minutes, candidates may request to leave the examination venue with the approval of the invigilator. However, candidates attending PPME are not permitted to leave the examination venue in the final 15 minutes.
14. The PEAK Exam Centre will not be responsible for any loss, theft or damage of personal property of candidates during the examination.
15. All personal articles including any textbooks, notes, dictionaries, electronic diaries and any other electronic devices, study materials must be placed in the designated area during the examination.
16. Drinking, eating and smoking are not allowed in the examination venue.
17. Candidates should write or do rough work on question papers, answer sheets or authorized papers.
18. Candidates should raise their hands to seek the invigilator’s assistance if they encounter any problems during the examination.
19. At the end of the examination, candidates should remain silent and seated until the invigilators announce that they could leave the examination venue.
